

The pioneer of litigation and arbitration funding is recruiting

This is a rare opportunity to bring your hard-earned experience into a dynamic and fast-growing funder. You will be integral to the way that we work, supporting the deployment of the £760 million of capital in the Harbour Funds.

We are looking for experienced litigation/arbitration solicitors or barristers to join us as 'Associate Litigation Director / Litigation Director' in order to assess, recommend and manage the Harbour Funds' investments in global litigation and arbitration. A probing intellect and strength in project management, risk assessment and financial acumen are more important than a specific number of years PQE.

This is a role for someone who wants to be in a very commercial environment making exceptional returns for investors from being at the forefront of innovation in the legal services.

You must be a team player able to work to tight deadlines with great inter-personal skills and:

- have a good understanding of how large scale commercial disputes are managed in England and Wales (and in other common law jurisdictions)
- have commercial acumen, be numerate, possess strong analytical and project management skills
- be accustomed to working with a wide range of legal and other professionals
- be robust in negotiation

Market remuneration and a great benefits package are on offer. London based.

Interested candidates should send their CV and a covering letter to recruitment@harbourlf.com, specifying 'Associate Litigation Director / Litigation Director' in the subject field. Telephone and personal enquiries will not be considered. No agencies.
